Early Music in the High Desert

Please join MarketMusic for its second season at the New Mexico School for the Arts this summer. Curated by Stephen Redfield, these informal one-hour concerts scheduled at noon on Saturdays were so popular last summer, that we've added more concerts. Your favorite Baroque musicians are performing in a setting and on original instruments that best evoke the music aesthetic of the period.

Each concert also features a brief Santa Fe Farmers' Market-related moment given by a chef or Northern New Mexican local agricultural producer.

No reservations are needed, and while a contribution of $20 is suggested, admission is by a free-will offering.

Free-parking is available for concert-goers across from the New Mexico School for the Arts.
